Metro | Making a great place

Print Form

Submit by E-mail

Climate leadership summit
Strategies to build livable, prosperous and climate smart communities

What: JPACT and MPAC members, other elected officials, and business and community leaders will work together at this half-day event to identify strategies to reduce the region's greenhouse gas emissions and create great communities. Participants can provide input on the combinations of land use and transportation strategies that should be tested by Metro this summer.

When: Friday, April 1, 2011 from 8 a.m. to noon. Registration and light breakfast from 7:30 to 8 a.m.

Where: Oregon Convention Center, F150-151

Who: Participation by JPACT and MPAC members and alternates.* Guest speakers John Fregonese, Fregonese and Associates, Inc. and Adam Davis, Davis, Hibbitts & Midghall.
Interested parties invited as observers.*

Cost: This event is free and open to the public.

To register for the summit, please complete this form and submit electronically by e-mail by selecting the upper right-hand button labeled "Submit by e-mail." Or, if you prefer, print and return by mail to: Joint JPACT/ MPAC Summit, c/o Kelsey Newell, Metro, 600 NE Grand Ave., Portland, OR 97232 or fax to 503-797-1793. Call Kelsey Newell at 503-797-1916 for more information.

ATTENDEE INFORMATION

Name:

Title: Organization:

Address:

Phone: Fax:

E-mail:

☐ JPACT or MPAC member ☐ TPAC or MTAC member ☐ Interested party