

Drive less. Connect.

Metro

Sharing the ride, bicycling, using transit and walking all save you money, reduce congestion and improve air quality. Drive Less Connect is a free tri-state network shared by Washington, Oregon and Idaho. In Idaho, it's called I-Way. In Washington, it's called RideshareOnline. In Oregon, it is Drive Less Connect.

Access through the Drive Less Save More website or through this link:

<https://drivelessavemore.icarpool.com>

1. Select the above link and log in to begin creating your profile.
2. Drive Less Connect will send an e-mail to your account with a specific link and password.
3. Select that link and, using the password sent to you, log in.
4. You can then create a new password and select a security question.
5. A one-page survey will appear. Complete this accurately and in full. The information you provide will populate your Drive Less Connect profile. Answer all the questions to continue.
6. Your registration is complete. Select the Ridematch tab to “create a trip” or the Calendar tab to log your trips. Look under the Rewards tab to see what is available. Go to the Profile tab to see what networks you are in, confirm your mailing address and select your security levels.

For questions and assistance call Metro Regional Travel Options at 503-813-7566 or email rto@oregonmetro.gov.

Drive less. Connect.

Metro

Sharing the ride, bicycling, using transit and walking all save you money, reduce congestion and improve air quality. Drive Less Connect is a free tri-state network shared by Washington, Oregon and Idaho. In Idaho, it's called I-Way. In Washington, it's called RideshareOnline. In Oregon, it is Drive Less Connect.

Access through the Drive Less Save More website or through this link:

<https://drivelessavemore.icarpool.com>

1. Select the above link and log in to begin creating your profile.
2. Drive Less Connect will send an e-mail to your account with a specific link and password.
3. Select that link and, using the password sent to you, log in.
4. You can then create a new password and select a security question.
5. A one-page survey will appear. Complete this accurately and in full. The information you provide will populate your Drive Less Connect profile. Answer all the questions to continue.
6. Your registration is complete. Select the Ridematch tab to “create a trip” or the Calendar tab to log your trips. Look under the Rewards tab to see what is available. Go to the Profile tab to see what networks you are in, confirm your mailing address and select your security levels.

For questions and assistance call Metro Regional Travel Options at 503-813-7566 or email rto@oregonmetro.gov.