Description of facility/application

McFarlane's Bark, Inc. (McFarlane's) has submitted an application to renew its Metro solid waste facility license to operate a yard debris compost facility. Current operations would not change under the proposed renewal.

McFarlane's accepts and processes yard debris for composting, and source-separated wood waste for delivery to facilities with industrial boilers that use the recovered wood to generate energy for use in place of non-renewable fossil fuels.

McFarlane's occupies just over 5.5 acres of land in Milwaukie, Oregon. The facility has been operating under a Metro license since 1998; the term of the proposed license would extend through June 30, 2018.
